Lushootseed Conference Location

Lemieux Library, Seattle University

901 12th Avenue, Seattle, Washington

When you get here, where to go in the building:

Go in the front door, and our reception table will be right there, to the right. The meeting room is just beyond, again off to the right.   Welcome!

Driving Directions:

- From I-5, take exit 164A to get to James Street.
- Turn uphill on James Street, and go on to 12th Avenue.   (James Street curves right to become Cherry Street.)
- Then take a left on 12th Avenue.
- Go two blocks to Marion Street, and turn left, where there is an entrance to campus & access to campus parking.

(Note: The library address is 901 12th Avenue, Seattle, but it is in the middle of campus, so you need to turn into campus at Marion and 12th.)
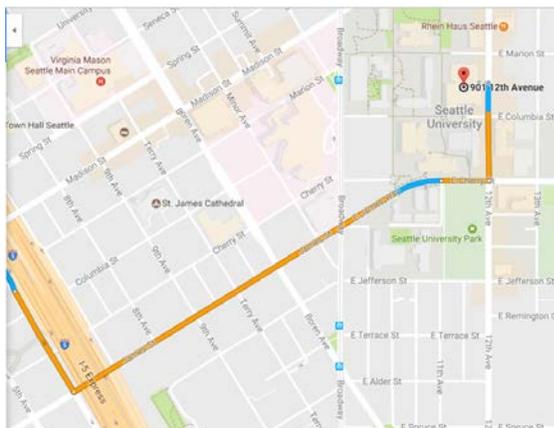

Free Parking:

The parking will be provided on a first come, first served basis. You should be okay if you come at the beginning. People will need to go to the main gate on Marion off of 12th and let them know you are with the Lushootseed Conference.   They will give you a pass and let you know where you can park. If the lot is full, they can advise on other options.
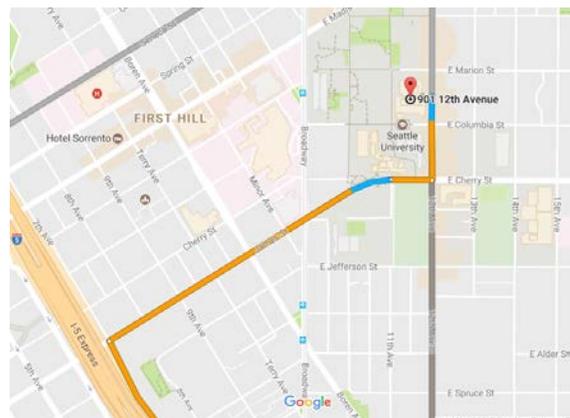

Dropping someone off, if needed

It is a bit of a hike from the parking lot to the library if you have mobility issues. There is a closer drop-off point: After turning onto 12th Avenue from James/ Cherry St, take your first left, onto Columbia, which leads to a roundabout where you can drop someone off, and then go another block up to Marion, to park.

See where Columbia is, in case you need to drop someone off. They will then need to keep walking straight ahead to get to the Library.

And see where Marion is, where you turn to reach the gatehouse, and parking beyond. Then you will walk south to get to the Library.
